ROL GAROTTE THE GRAND PARISIAN SPECTACLE. SEVENTH WEEK.

The Home Journal says:—"The strongest troupe of theatrical stars' ever congregated at a piace of amusement in New York is now gathered at the Grand Opera House, and all appear every night in the regular 'slock combany." Mrs. JOHN WOOD, JOHN BROUGHAM, EMMA. HOW. SON, ROSE HERSKE, STUART ROBSON, the MAJILTONS and the LAURI FAMILY, have each and separately formed the chief and shows only at traction at many places of amusement in New York and elsewhere. These, with the other actors and singers, the grand scenery, gorgeous dresses, a clorus of forty, and counties supernumeraries, form probably the most expensive dramatic entertainment over offered in this country."

Sunday Popular Concerts.

We have to congratulate Mr. Harrison for his superior intelligence in having brought before a crowded and appreciating audience, on Sunday evening last, October 6, a first class artist, Signor Philippi.

Signor Philippi has been neglected like an infant chorist; but Signor Philippi is a truly talented artist, possessing a remarkable compass of voice, superior intelligence, musical education, together with a most agreeable presence. His great success of last Sunday night proved this Signor Colby is also another true artist, and, as an accompanier at the piano, the first in America. STEINWAY HALL—RUBINSTEIN—TO MORROW,
